DECLARATION BY INVENTORS

We, Elaine Fuchs, Tudorita Tumbur, Cedrick Blanpain and William E. Lowry hereby declare:

1. We are co-inventors in U.S. Patent Application Serial No. 10/580,511, filed February 13, 2007, and are most familiar with the subject matter of this application and the research effort that led to the present invention.

2. We are co-authors along with Geraldine Guasch, Valentina Greco, and Michael Rendl of the paper entitled "Defining the Epithelial Stem Cell Niche in Skin," published online December 11, 2003 in the journal Science.

3. While co-authors Geraldine Guasch conducted FACS sorting experiments, Valentina Greco carried out immunostaining analyses, and Michael Rendl assisted in the statistical analysis of data, all of which was instrumental in the preparation of the paper, these individuals did not contribute to the conceptualization of subject matter of the invention claimed in U.S. Application Serial No. 10/580,511. As such, the paper entitled "Defining the Epithelial Stem Cell Niche in Skin" is our, the co-inventors, own work and not by another.

I hereby declare that all statements herein of our own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information or belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with the knowledge that willful statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or by imprisonment, or both, under '1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that such willful statements may jeopardize the validity of the application, any patent issuing there upon, or any patent to which this verified statement is directed.
